

Journey to Academic Integrity & Online Participant Authentication

Lisa Marie Johnson, Ph.D.
eLCC 2011

Presentation Goal

To share the journey to academic integrity by CCCOnline and the open content resources created in collaboration with WCET to educate faculty and students about policies and procedures.

How does your institution define academic integrity?

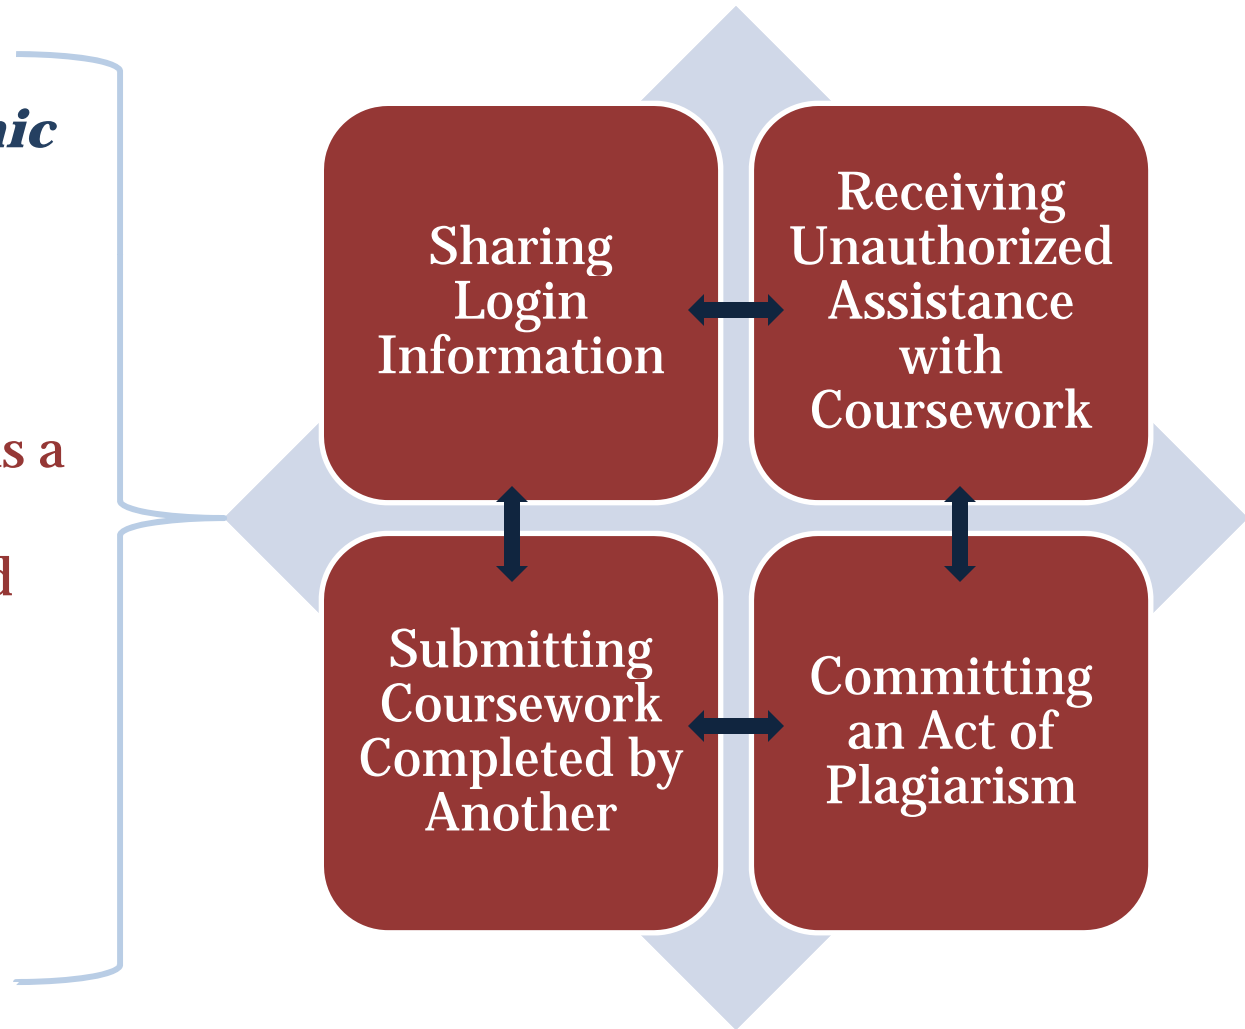

CCCOnline - 2010

Scope of Academic Integrity

You are an academic if you are associated with an academy.

An academy is commonly defined as a college or other organization focused on education.

To have integrity commonly means to act with honesty.

How do you educate stakeholders about the policies and procedures?

CCCOOnline - 2010 The Journey & Resources

<http://links.cconline.org/integrity>

Strategies

- Handbooks
- Course policies pages
- Course activities
- Keeping the discussion going
- Other Ideas?

Questions? Contact.

- Any Muddy Points?
- For General Questions, Contact

Lisa Marie Johnson, Ph.D.
lisamarie.johnson@cccs.edu
@kuriousmind

- For Questions About Authentication, Contact

CCCOonline Student Services
advising@ccconline.org